

THE GREENVILLE JOURNAL.

"EXCELSIOR."

VOL. 85—Established 1832.

GREENVILLE, OHIO, THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1916.

No. 9.

Gettysburg.

The Great Darke County Fair ended last Friday and I suppose it may be said it was well sustained so far as attendance goes and probably in every other respect. The result of the election is not known to the writer, but I suppose it matters little who has been elected to fill the board and the executive offices, the Fair will go on as usual, growing better from year to year, and why should it not? This county has a population of progressive people and persons whose faces are usually set forward and ready to appropriate everything that is of a boosting nature and capable of securing a higher order of progress. Let the good work go on and not only claim but possess the best of everything and thus have right to greatness, not in name only, but in reality.

Walter Burnett has sold his interest in the Burnett Bros. stock of merchandise, etc., in this village to his brother, Carl Burnett, who will continue the business in his own name.

P. B. Miller and wife visited Rev. J. A. Hoffman, pastor of the First M. E. church at Middletown, O., over Saturday and Sunday, returning home today. They report having had a pleasant time during their stay and left the Reverend feeling that this work in that place is successful and approved by his parishioners in large measure.

On next Sunday Rev. J. O. Hillery will preach his last sermon in our M. E. church for this year and it is hoped that a large attendance will be present on that occasion before he goes to the annual conference, which meets at Lima the week following. We hope, however, that that service will not be his last one for the charge, as his people voted unanimously for his return and confidently believe he will be assigned to this charge for another year by that conference.

A couple of refreshing showers fell here on last Saturday evening and yesterday, brightening everything and putting a smile on Dame Nature's face.

W. H. Horner is finishing a porch in front of his new dwelling, erected during last spring. Mr. Horner seems to understand pretty well what is needful for comfort and convenience.

Mrs. P. B. Moul and her children will become residents of Columbus this week for convenience to attend the schools of that city and thereby securing an education to fit them to meet the ordinary duties of life.

D. V. Locklear continues on the sick list without much change either way.

It will require haste to get all the work done within the season that has been planned. Time is passing whether we are active or not. The harbingers of frost are appearing and soon will be upon us. Much of the corn, tobacco and other vegetation is considerably short of maturity and will be caught unless the freezing weather delays its coming. This low temperature, succeeding the recent high, brings the chill upon us, reminding us of what is in store in the near future.

Aug. 28. XOB

Will My Child Take Dr. King's New Discovery?
This best answer is Dr. King's New Discovery itself. It's a pleasant sweet syrup, easy to take. It contains the medicines which years of experience have proven best for Cough and Colds. Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery longest are its best friends. Besides every bottle is guaranteed. If you don't get satisfaction you get your money back. Buy a bottle, use as directed. Keep what is left for Cough and Cold insurance.

—Adv

Palestine.

We have been told that the Palestine school will begin on September 11.

Mrs. Eakins of Gas City, Ind., sister of Mrs. Alice Monks, visited relatives here last week.

Ephraim Hill's daughter of Atwood, Kan., is visiting here at present.

Reason Ketring has purchased the property owned by Mr. Davis in this place and will occupy it at a future time.

Mrs. Victoria Owens of Grover Hill, O., visited her brother, P. J. Groendyke, last week.

Charles Campbell and wife went to see his brother, who is quite ill, near Woodington, Sunday.

Relatives from Kentucky are visiting Henry Hiper at this writing.

We have heard that several citizens were robbed at the Darke County Fair last week. It does not seem extra wise to carry any great surplus of cash to such a place, when Greenville has good banks.

Aug. 28. FROM PALESTINE.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Hathorn

Mills Reunion.

The third annual reunion of the Mills family will be held on the Darke county fair grounds, Greenville, O., on Monday, September 4, 1916. Those who cannot come are requested to send a letter to be read. Those who have a song or declamation, please write the secretary or respond on that day. Relatives and friends are cordially invited to come with well-filled baskets and enjoy the day with us. Would like to see which family can bring out the most members. W. H. Mills, Pres.

Greenville, O., R. D. 8.

Dora M. Teaford, Sec'y.

400 Sweitzer St., Greenville, O.

WANTED—TIMBER—Linn (Basswood), Cottonwood, willow and poplar bolts four inches in diameter or larger; standing timber or cut and ricked anywhere.
Johnson Excelsior & Mfg. Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

CARTER, in New York Evening Sun

"I'VE HAD ENOUGH OF IT!"

Why a Democrat Opposes Wilson.

Washington, Aug. 30. (Special Correspondence). Democrats were considerably disturbed a few days ago when Congressman J. W. Fordney of Michigan placed in the Congressional Record a long and vigorously worded letter written by Louis E. Rowley of Lansing, Mich., who was an ardent supporter of Woodrow Wilson in 1912 but who will support Charles E. Hughes in 1916. A portion of the letter reads as follows:

"Speaking as a Democrat, I would not give my vote to indorse such a record as the present administration has made if Thomas Jefferson had indorsed it a thousand times. I say it sadly, but in many respects Woodrow Wilson has been the most undemocratic president the country has ever had—undemocratic alike in his temper and in his conception of the function of his office.

"If a Republican president had done the arbitrary, inconsistent, and incredibly maladroit things which Woodrow Wilson has done from the very outset of his presidential career, the Democratic leaders and press would long ago have united in a deafening demand for his summary impeachment as an intolerable dictator.

They are only prevented from doing so now by the fact that over his head flies the Democratic flag, which in the stress of a presidential contest they prefer to the flag of their country.

"But I can not take such a narrow, partisan view of my responsibility as an American voter.

We are passing through one of the most tremendous crises in world history. Tempest weather is still threatening. Even the signing of a peace concordat in Europe may increase rather than diminish our national difficulties by precipitating a revolutionary tumult that will rival the war in its world-convolving consequences. In any event the end of the war will bring momentous economic and international changes. If there was ever a time when the United States needed wise, strong, and steadfast statesmanly guidance, it is in these destiny-fraught days.

"Fortunately, in the midst of our national anxieties and bewilderment one rock of assurance rears its head. It is the figure of that courageous, masterful, and forthright American statesman, Charles Evans Hughes. 'He is a tried and proved certainty,' is the tribute which was paid to him by the Democratic New York World over eight years ago.

"No one has ever accused him of rhapsodizing or 'trimming' in the presence of grave public perils. No one has ever questioned his intellectual conscientiousness.

"He owes all of his national prominence to the independence, the directness, and the unflinching thoroughness of his political action. Never in all his public career a bidder for popularity, he has nevertheless been taken up by the people and advanced to the highest official position. By consequence, his career is one of the great examples, one of the great inspirations, of our country. All of which goes to prove that he has the quality of a representative mind—the mind of a real leader to whom the people instinctively turn in a time of national need.

"I shall therefore vote for Charles Evans Hughes with the same patriotic confidence that I voted for Grover Cleveland."

Clear Skin Comes from Within.

It is foolish to think you can gain a good clear complexion by the use of face powder. Get at the root of the trouble and thoroughly cleanse the system with a treatment of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Gentle and mild in action, do not gripe, yet they relieve the liver by their action on the bowels. Good for young, adults and aged. Go after a clear complexion today. 25c at your druggist.

—Adv

Keep Flies from Barns.

Flies that breed late in the summer and early fall are more annoying to cows and other farm animals than the ones that appear earlier in the season, so especial attention should be given now to prevent broods hatching in the barns. The fly maggots hatch in manure in the stables or calf pens. Both should be cleaned out frequently and quicklime used around the walls. The lime should also be used around the edges, especially where the dirt is less likely to be removed.

Subscribe for the Journal

10,000 HORSESHOE PITCHERS IN OHIO

At Least This Number Is Enrolled for the Honor of Being Sent to State Fair Contest.

Ten thousand horseshoe pitchers, young and old, have enrolled for county horseshoe pitching contests in Ohio. The winners from the different counties—88 of them—will compete in the state-wide contest that is to be made one of the big "bell-ringing features" at the Ohio state fair, August 28 to September 1.

Prizes Offered.

The bait that is attracting horseshoe pitchers in every nook and corner of the state is:

First, the free round trip railroad fare to Columbus and return that the Ohio state fair management will give every county winner.

Second, the $250.00 in cash and prizes to be awarded state winners as follows:

First prize, $100.00 in gold and a $30.00 championship medal. The next three, each $25.00 in gold and a $15.00 horseshoe stick pin.

SPLENDID PROGRAM OF RACES AT FAIR

The horse races at Ohio state fair this year will be featured by what is thought to be the largest entry list ever made in the history of horse racing at the Ohio state fair. C. K. Patterson, of Piketown, member of the state board of agriculture, who is in charge of this department of the state fair, promises the best program of horse racing ever seen at Columbus. Entries close on the 22d. The entry fee is $20, and there are six monies in each race. There will be 15 races. Three will be run each day. The highest purse is the governor's, which is for $1,500. This will be run on Thursday. There will be a stake each day. Two $500 purses will be hung up each day also.

The races will start promptly every afternoon at 1:30, except in cases where races are postponed or uncompleted on the days they are scheduled.

GRANGE REUNION TO BE LARGELY ATTENDED

The patrons' reunion of the Ohio State Grange will be held Wednesday and Thursday, August 30 and 31, at the Ohio state fair. Speakers of national note will be present to address the meetings.

The state board of agriculture is offering three beautiful silk flags, one each to be awarded to the grange registering the largest number of members present during the two days in each of the following zones:

First zone—Franklin county.

Second zone—Outside of Franklin county and less than 50 miles from Columbus.

Third zone—More than 50 miles from Columbus.

A fine silver loving cup will be awarded to the grange in each zone having the second largest number of members present.

The grange winning a silk flag last year will receive a silver cup should they win first place again this year.

Night Horse Show is Feature This Year

"NANCY WALKER," JOHN R. THOMPSON UP.

When Ohio's greatest industrial and agricultural exposition opens in Columbus, Monday, August 28, the people of Ohio will have an opportunity of seeing the most wonderful collection of exhibits ever shown at the Ohio state fair.

Not only have all the records been broken for the number and comprehensive display of Ohio made and raised products, but prospects for the largest attendance in the history of the state fair are visible.

The largest collection of farm implements, vehicles and machinery will be on the grounds. Housed in the 17 large, permanent, stone, brick and steel exposition buildings will be the handwork of hundreds of industrious Ohioans. The rarest fruits, the finest corn, the best of all the wheat grown in Ohio, will be on exhibition.

Record-Breaking Exhibits.
In the cattle pens will be seen the greatest collection of cattle ever displayed. Over 60 herds, numbering 1,000 head, will be shown. In the horse barns will be housed a million-dollar exhibit of heavy draft horses alone. In the light limbed horse section will be seen the prizes and pets of at least four of the country's most noted millionaire horsemen. Such men as John R. Thompson of Chicago and John L. Bushnell of Springfield will have wonderful exhibits. Other horse fanciers will have the pick of their stables there.

An automobile show, the most comprehensive and complete ever held in Ohio, barring none, will be seen at the state fair. Every well-known make of automobile will be shown. Special attention has been given to the display of these modern steeds, so that they can be seen to the best advantage.

Other Exhibits.

There will be the tractor section; a threshermen's section; heavy machinery will be seen—the requirements were so great that many exhibitors had to cut down the size of their displays and others had to be content to house them in a huge tent. The poultry exhibits promise to eclipse anything ever shown. The dairy section will be complete. The state exhibits will be better than ever. Columbus will have an industrial exposition building of its own.